4. CONSENT OF PARENT/GUARDIAN

Gaining parent or guardian's consent to their child's participation in Youth Centre activities is an essential part of our work with young people. During your child's visits to the project or whilst participating in activities it may be that photographs or videos are taken. These will be for the following reasons:

- To provide evidence of the work we do to our funders
- For our printed publications, website and other publicity materials
- To provide local media with information about what we do and gain publicity for the project
- To provide young people a photographic memento of their involvement

I consent for my child to attend 13+ activities at the Youth Centre Yes No

I consent for Louth 13 + Project to take photos/videos of my child for the reasons stated Yes No

I release the Louth 13 + Project Youth & Community Centre and individuals from liability in case of an accident during activities related to the Louth 13+ Project, as long as normal safety procedures have been taken.

I will inform the Louth 13 + Project Youth & Community Centre of any changes to the information above.
